

Resorts on Sanibel Island: Paradise

When you ask a group of people to describe their ideas of a perfect vacation, you'll likely get a variety of different responses. Some want thrills and adventure. Others want to experience exotic locations. And there are those who simply want to relax on a quiet beach. Regardless of what folks are looking for on holiday, they're sure to find it at any one of the many resorts on Sanibel Island.

Highly rated as one of the world's perfect vacation destinations, Sanibel Island hosts thousands of visitors each year. Travelers come from far and wide to search for seashells along the endless white, sandy beaches and to get up close and personal with hundreds of birds, reptiles and mammals thriving in their native habitat amid the J. N. Ding Darling National Wildlife Refuge.

While the thriving tourist industry has not marred the beauty of the island, it has led to a marked increase in the number of well-appointed resorts on Sanibel Island. Enterprising landowners realize the need for comfortable accommodations, and have provided travelers with many options.

Most resorts on Sanibel Island cater to families, although there are a select few that provide services with romantics and mature adventurers in mind. Regardless of the type of resort you're looking for, you're bound to find comfortable accommodations and wonderful dining choices. These resorts offer the very best of everything Sanibel Island is famous for.

Casa Ybel ResortThe Casa Ybel Resort is the epitome of the old island spirit and personal sanctuary that Sanibel Island provides. Nestled on a shell-studded sandy beach along Florida's southwest coastline, guests can spend days gathering seashells along the shore, or simply soaking up the sub-tropical climate. Casa Ybel is one of the island's best-known beachfront resorts, located within a comfortable drive from the Southwest Florida International Airport in Fort Myers.

South Seas Island ResortIf you prefer the luxury of newer accommodations and dining choices, then you should consider the South Seas Island Resort. More than $140 million in renovations have transformed this resort into a luxurious tropical getaway. Golfers love the South Seas Island Resort for the incredible course, located on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico.

Sundial Beach and Golf ResortOf all the resorts on Sanibel Island, the Sundial Beach and Golf Resort is regarded as the most comprehensive. To say that there is something for everyone at Sundial Beach and Golf Resort would be something of an understatement. This "centerpiece of the Island" provides visitors with the degree of comfort and pleasure one would expect from a classic Florida resort. At this national playground, visitors of all ages are free to play along the magnificent beach, swim in the crystal waters, and explore the miles of paved Island pathways on foot or bicycle.

West Wind Inn ResortWhen you need to leave the day-to-day stress behind and just enjoy a little pampering, visit the West Wind Inn. As one of the most acclaimed resorts on Sanibel Island, the friendly and professional West Wind Inn staff treats every guest with stress-free service. The private beach is a lovely bonus, with white sand, warm waters and of course, those magnificent seashells that Sanibel Island is famous for.

Whether your vision of a perfect vacation involves a pair of hiking boots, a set of golf clubs or just a beach chair and a pair of shades, the resorts on Sanibel Island are waiting to make your dream of paradise a reality.
